

Albion A-Maizing Corn Harvest

History repeats itself! Over 110 years ago Albion celebrated “The Fair” (A day of Farmers Market, Food, Crafts & Traders), the same weekend of our A-Maizing Corn Harvest.

In the fall of 2007 the Corn Harvest repeated history.

The A-Maizing corn harvest was recreated by 2 women one morning over a cup of coffee.

On October 4, 2008 you will experience a salute not only to the pioneer farmers of Michigan, but also to the extraordinary power of the community, farmer, City of Albion, Businesses and a pool of talented volunteers and donors to this event.

A Heartfelt “Thank You” to all!

From the Corn Harvest Committee and the Farming Community

Come experience the traders, crafts, food and life style of the past and present.
