

General Guide to Albion, Michigan

Issue XI • July/August 2015 • “Albion Parks” Edition
Visit the new Albion Google Calendar: www.AlbionMich.com/general/

Albion was founded at the Kalamazoo River “forks” near Reiger Park pond. Did you know that Albion has more public parks per capita than any other U.S. city? Visit Albion parks for some healthy summer fun: try disc golf at Victory Park & hike the Albion River Trail. July 3, enjoy music, a pig roast at the American Legion Hall, plus fireworks! We hope to revive the Albion Neighborhood Watch groups. For more info, visit: www.AlbionMich.com/general

Downtown mural panel 5 above features the Victory Park bandshell concerts, Swingin' at the Shell. Also in panel five are the traditional Barnes Park fireworks, to include food and music this year.

July & August weather forecast from the Old Farmer's Almanac calls for above average temperatures and near normal rainfall. “Dog Days,” related to the Dog Star, Sirius, are mid-July thru mid-August. At the Albion Farmers' Market shop for flowers, herbs, lettuce, cucumbers, fresh broccoli, onions, carrots, & squash. For info about the 7/25 canoe event, “Kanoë the Kazoo,” other events and healthy activities, visit www.AlbionMich.com/general

A “Blue Moon” - see 7/31 - is the second full moon in any one month. This only happens about once every 2.5 years. The moon is not really blue, but is the reason for the old-fashioned saying: “Once in a blue moon.”
